Directions to Alladale Wilderness Lodge & Reserve Coming from the North, following the A836 (inland) or A949 via A9 (coastal)

- On your sat nav, follow directions to Ardgay or Bonar Bridge. In Ardgay, turn your sat nav off!
- Note: You will lose your mobile phone signal after Ardgay, so please telephone the Lodge & let us know you are on your way. Tel: 01863 755338
- Cross the bridge, until you are in Ardgay. Look for the Sutherland Fishery Office on your right-hand side, on the corner of Church Street, and make a sharp bend to the right.
- Follow toward Croick (Croy k). Continue along this road through Gledfield.
Landmark: Past Gledfield Primary School on your right
- The road bears sharply to the right, follow the road to Croick (9 ½ miles). Keep going along this winding country road with passing places. Be aware there may be lambs & sheep in the road.
Landmark: After 7 miles you will see a turning on your left leading to a bridge - do not take this. Continue straight ahead.
- After a further mile you will see signs indicating Croick Estate & Church straight ahead, take the road on the left here going over a small bridge.
Landmark: Red phone box on your right, then turn left!
- The road will take you past 'Amat' Estate on the left and after less than a mile there will be a turning area on your right at Glen Calvie Junction. Ahead there is a green sign on the fence post by the cattle grid (the first of three) saying 'Alladale Lodge 1.5 miles' follow the driveway all the way to the Lodge.
Landmark: As you approach the estate the river & falls are on your left, watch out for Wild Deer crossing and Highland Ponies grazing
